NAVAL BILL TO CONFERENCE

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, MARCH 2.—The complex legislative situation in congress which all day Saturday threatened to tie up many of the most important appropriation bills and throw them over into the extra session for enactment was relieved early to day when the senate passed the general deficiency bill, agreed to vote on the seamen's involuntary servitude bill, and accept the conference reports on the postoffice and river and harbor bill. The public buildings bill, however, was in a precarious condition and indications were that it might fail of passage.

Both the senate and the house will meet again this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 1.—A well defined filibuster that developed in the senate early to day against the conference reports on the rivers and harbors bill and the public buildings bill, threatened tonight to have disastrous results upon the completion of the appropriation legislation of this session of congress. With adjournment only about sixty hours away, congress tonight had thirteen of its big supply bills unfinished and the proceedings in the senate were such as to indicate that several of the measures might fail of passage before March 4.

Senators Root, O'Gorman and Bristow has issued a direct ultimatum that the house of representatives must either accept some of the general amendments put into the public building bill by the senate or the measure would not pass at this session of congress. Senator Newlands of Nevada holding the floor for several hours during the day insisted that there should be no action on the river and harbor conference report until an opportunity was given for a vote in the house of representatives upon his amendment proposing a river regulation board to take control of all waterway development.

May Block Conference Ratification.
The naval, agricultural pension, sundry civil appropriation bills were all held back from final preparation when the filibuster started. Conference committee worked until after midnight last night and throughout day attempting to adjust differences between the two houses. The continuation of the senate filibuster may so block the ratification of these conference reports, however, as to make it impossible to pass up all of the bills before adjournment March 4th. In case any of them fail of passage, it will be necessary for the extra session to take them up so that the conference committee had not been bankrupted.

The opposition to the public buildings bill was based on the ground that the conference committee had omitted all of the general items and left only the local appropriations which Senator Bristow referred to as "grab" items. Among the senate amendments dropped out of the bill were those for the Arlington Memorial Bridge, a militia armory an extension of the park system and a national Red Cross building, all in Washington and $3,000,000 for a New York house site.

Both the two battleshipmen and the president to day were the fortifications appropriation bill involving about $4,000,000 and the diplomatic and consular bill carrying something over $3,000,000. The measures resting in precarious condition to day involved total appropriations of over $10,000,000,000.

The house late to day adopted the conference report on the navy appropriation bill, carrying $94,000,000 and the pension appropriation bill, carrying $180,000,000.

Naval Bill to Conference.
The naval appropriation bill, with the senate amendment to authorize two battleships was sent to conference by the house to day after a short but lively debate. Representative Padgett of Tennessee chairman of the naval affairs committee, called up the bill and vainly sought to have a vote on the battleship program before the measure went into conference. The house had voted for one battleship and the bill, footing up about $138,000,000 as it passed the house, was increased to approximately $150,000,000 by the senate which carried the battleship program.

Both the two battleshipmen and the economy advocates joined in the debate the upshot of which was that the house by unanimous consent disagreed to the senate amendments and sent to the bill to conference with Representatives Padgett of Tenn., Gregg of Texas and Foss of Illinois and Senators Perkins, Peurose and Tillman as conferees.

The conference will thresh out the differences between the two houses tomorrow.

To Meet Again Today.

HARD COAL FIGURES SHOW BIG INCREASE

PRICE TO CONSUMERS ADVANCES
$13,450,000 SINCE MAY

Wage Increase After Strike Agreement Was $4,000,000 Annually According to Bureau of Labor's Report of Investigation.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 1.—Hard coal companies increased the wages of their employees $4,000,000 a year after the strike agreement of last May and increased the price of anthracite to consumers $13,450,000, according to a report based on an investigation by the bureau of labor submitted to the house today. The report submitted by Secretary Nagel is the result of an investigation conducted in response to a house resolution asking for the "elements of cost and profit included in the present high price of anthracite."

Wholesale Prices Increased.
An average increase of 26 cents a ton in wholesale coal prices was discovered to have been made since the strike agreement of last May. In spite of the fact that the workers benefited about $4,000,000 in increased wages during the year, the report adds that "the recent increases in price have been more than sufficient to compensate fully those companies whose costs of production have increased most rapidly during recent years and at the same time have very greatly increased the profits of those companies of whom there are at least several, whose costs of production either decreased or remained stationary during the same period."

Coal for domestic use increased a fraction over 31 cents a ton, that on pea coal and the small steam sizes 16 cents a ton. These figures were based on comparison of net receipts by the operators after the agreement of May last with their receipts during the same months, June to September, 1911.

Large Amount From Increase.
Of the more than $13,000,000 gained by the operators after the strike agreement, $10,900,000 was derived from general increase in prices and about $2,550,000 from the suspension of April and May discounts, while in addition a limited number of operators are reported to have "received very large sums through the sale of coal through premiums gained by the increase in the price of shipments," incident to the strike. The discounts of 40 and 56 cents a ton customarily allowed in April and May on domestic size coal were suspended during these months in 1912. As a result the operators not only gained by saving this discount, says the report, but in addition purchasers who were unable to secure their usual supply in these months, were forced to buy it during June, July or August, when discount rates were smaller or in September and later when full circular prices are charged. The $13,450,000 the report says was not net profit because out of it came the cost of the six weeks cessation of work by the strikers and also the increase in their wages.

The increase in wages, however, the report adds, represents a raise of only 8 to 10 cents a ton in the cost of production.

The report shows that all the operators, most of the dealers and the consumers, all gained by the increase following the wage agreement and that the consuming public alone paid higher prices without any compensation.

NO LONGER GOVERNOR WILSON
Trenton, N. J., March 1.—President-elect Wilson ceased to be governor of New Jersey to day, when his resignation of the office came into effect and he was succeeded automatically by James F. Fielder, president of the state senate. Mr. Wilson will spend tomorrow in taking leave of old friends here and completing the preparations for departure to Washington. The hour of removal for the national capital has been fixed for 11 o'clock Monday morning. The party will arrive in Washington at 4 p. m. In the evening the President-elect will attend a smoker to be given in his honor by the Princeton alumni association of the District of Columbia. Mr. Wilson and his family will pass the night at the Shoreham Hotel as guests of Mr. Wilson's cousin, John E. Wilson of Franklin, Pa.

At 10 o'clock this morning, passing the workmen's compensation bill and handling a mass of routine appropriation bills, the house took a recess until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Majority Leader Underwood announced during the evening session that it would be necessary for the house to resort to the unusual expedient of meeting for regular business on Sunday owing to the situation as to the big supply bills.

Agree to Conference Report.
Washington, March 2.—At 2:20 a. m., the senate agreed to the conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill covering all differences between the two houses except one. The exception was the amendment of the senate as to the weighing of the mails next September.

On the amendment the senate ordered a second conference. By a vote of 45 to 16, the senate agreed at 2:35 a. m. to accept the conference on the river and harbor bill. The bill excludes the Newlands amendment providing a commission to make a general investigation of the waterways of the country.

At 2:28 a. m. the senate took a recess until 2 o'clock this (Sunday) morning at the capital.

MAY INVOLVE CUBA

Action in Aiding Ernesto
Madero's Escape May Bring Trouble

CUBANS ARE UNFRIENDLY

Cuban Minister's Action is Regarded as Unfriendly by President Huerta.

MEXICO CITY, MARCH 1.—The Cuban government probably will have to face an interesting diplomatic squabble with the Mexican government as a result of reports which have reached the officials here on an alleged revolutionary plan of members of the Madero family, who were taken to Havana aboard the gunboat Cuba. It is persistently reported in the capital that the actions of the Cuban minister, Manuel Marquez Sterling, in assisting Ernesto Madero to escape from the country are regarded as unfriendly by President Huerta and some members of the new cabinet. The minister of foreign relations, Senor de la Barra, however, denies that Minister Sterling is persona non grata. Information has been furnished the government by secret agents in Havana that the Maderos and some of their friends are already engaged in planning a new revolution, and it is stated that if this is true, the extradition of Ernesto Madero and probably a few others will be asked for. Since the laws of Cuba regarding the extradition of political offenders practically are the same as those of the United States, the Mexican government will charge the suspected men with crimes against the common order, and it was even stated today that charges of murder resulting from the recent bombardment might be filed.

According to the government reports it is alleged that the junta in Havana includes Federico Gonzalez Garza, former governor of the federal district, Senor Rendón, a member of the chamber of deputies and Rafael Hernandez, former minister of the interior. Raol and Emilio Madero, brothers of the late president, reported on several occasions to have been killed, are now said to be in Texas and in communication with Rendón at Havana. Another feature of the alleged revolutionary activities of the Madero family, in which Cuba is declared to be involved, was the escape from Vera Cruz on Wednesday, aboard the Spanish steamer Marcus Calvo, of a Cuban named Carrisarte, a former secret agent of the Madero government in Havana. The federal government ordered the arrest of Carrisarte. It is alleged that he came to Vera Cruz to assist in transferring money and documents for the Maderos out of the country. He escaped arrest by hiding in the hold of the steamer and it is asserted here that he received aid from Cuban officials in invading the government authorities.

Revoltors Mobilizing.
Douglas, Ariz., March 1.—Revoltors against the Huerta government are mobilizing at Colonia Morelos, an American Mormon settlement in Sonora. The deserters from Agua Prieta broke camp today at Geniza Springs and started for Morelos where they will be joined by a group from Oaxaca, Bavispe and Moctezuma, totalling some 700 armed men.

Colonel Obregon, a former federal commander at Agua Prieta, has denounced Huerta and is leading revolted troops near Hermosillo where an outbreak is expected at any time. Armed guards patrol the streets of the state capital, and saloons are closed.

Burns Public Records.
Mexico City, March 1.—Zapatistas camped at Cuajimalpa, in the federal district, burned the public records, disarmed the police and sacked many houses last night. They had become suspicious of the government's sincerity regarding the peace negotiations.

Orozco Jr., Silent.
El Paso, Texas, March 1.—General Pascual Orozco, Jr., the commander-in-chief of the northern revolution until today silent regarding his stand in the Mexican dilemma declared that he is eager to arrange peace by negotiations. To bring this about he said he had sent Colonel Cordova to Mexico City as his representative.

Through Cordova's agency the rebel chief proposes to take up directly and at once the matter of the pacification in the north, but to see first what will be offered by Provisional President Huerta and his advisers. Orozco himself will remain some time at Ahumada, between Juarez and Chihuahua city, where he is in touch with the outside world by telegraph and railway.

Manuel Garza Aldape, named on General Huerta's provisional cabinet, will arrive here tomorrow from San Antonio, Texas. With others he will proceed by special train to Ahumada to confer with Orozco. Rebel chiefs still in arms are marching toward Ahumada where will be held a general congress of all revolutionary leaders to come to some conclusion regarding the requests to be made on the party in power at the capital.

WILSON GIVEN UNIQUE TRIBUTE

THOUSANDS OF PRINCETON HOMEFOLK SAY FAREWELL

Brass Band, Glare of Fire-Works and Continuous Cheering Bring President-Elect to Door of His Bungalow—Presented With Loving Cup

PRINCETON, N. J., MARCH 1.—Thousands of home folks of Princeton, and with them the students of Princeton university, gave Woodrow Wilson a farewell demonstration to night as they bade him Good-bye to the white house. It was a unique tribute to the man who after twenty-seven years of residence in the historic town had been elevated to the presidency of the United States in that both students and townsfolk joined in cheering him.

A brass band, a glare of fireworks and continuous cheering brought the president-elect to the door of his bungalow just as the procession of students and residents turned the corner of Cleveland Lane, marching by the house where Grover Cleveland lived and died.

Great Cheer Brings Wilson.

When the marchers reached the Wilson home, a great cheer brought Mr. Wilson out. C. S. Robinson, a Republican, and A. S. Lehigh, a Democrat, bore a silver loving cup. Colonel David M. Flynn presented it in a brief speech. The president-elect stood on a box just outside the portico of his home and said good-bye to his fellow townsfolk.

"I want you to believe me," he said, "when I say I shall never lose the consciousness of the years just passed. I would be a very poor president if I did lose it. I have always believed that the real rootages of patriotism were local, that they resided in one's consciousness of an intimate touch with persons who were watching him with a knowledge of his character."

Must Love Country Concretely.

"You cannot love a country abstractly; you have got to love it concretely. You have got to know people in order to love them. You have got to feel as they do in order to have sympathy with them, and any man would be a very poor public servant who did not regard himself as a part of the public. No man can imagine how other people are thinking. He can know only by what is going on in his own head, and if that head is not connected by every thread of suggestion with the heads of people about him he cannot think as they think."

"I am turning away from this place in body, but not in spirit, and I am doing it with genuine sadness. The real trials of life are the connections you break and when a man has lived in one place as long as I have lived in Princeton, and had as many experiences as I have had here, first as an undergraduate and then as a resident, he knows what it means to change his residence and to go into strange environments and surroundings."

Never Inside White House.

"I have never been inside of the white house, and I shall feel very strange when I get inside of it. I shall think of this little house behind me and remember how much more familiar it is to me than that is likely to be, and how much more intimate a sense of possession there must be in the one case than in the other."

"One cannot be a neighbor to the whole United States. I shall miss my neighbors. I shall miss the daily contact with the men I know and by whom I am known and one of the happiest things in my thought will be that your good wishes go with me."

"With your confidence and the confidence of men like you, the task that lies before me will be gracious and agreeable. It will be a thing to be proud of because I am trying to represent those who have so graciously trusted me."

Applause Follows Close of Speech.
An outburst of applause followed the closing of the speech. Line was formed and Mr. Wilson shook hands for nearly an hour.

It was the climax of a busy day for Mr. Wilson. He had witnessed the inauguration of his successor in Trenton and spoken a farewell to the members of the legislature.

The afternoon he devoted to packing. Just before dinner the Princeton mail carriers who have borne heavy mail to the president-elect since he first entered public life came in a body to say good-bye. Friends called in a continuous stream. Practically the whole town said good-bye to him tonight and the farewells will be continued tomorrow.

Resignation a Forgery.

San Antonio, Texas, March 1.—The purported resignation of the late President Madero was today declared by R. V. Pesquera, a member of the Mexican chamber of deputies to be a forgery by those who killed Madero, aimed to give the color of legality to the Huerta administration. Pesquera is now a refugee in San Antonio. He asserted that Madero and Vice-President Suarez were killed because they refused to resign and so they could not deny the authenticity of the resignations. Senor Pesquera has wired his statement to Washington.

NO MORE ARBITRATION

Rejection of Preliminary Proposal Closes Door to Further Overtures

WASHINGTON, MARCH 1.—In a special message reviewing the controversy with Colombia over the separation of Panama, President Taft today transmitted to the senate a report by Secretary Knox which declared the Colombia's flat rejection of preliminary settlement proposals by the United States have closed the door to any further overtures on the part of the United States.

Regarded as a Duty.

Secretary Knox stated in his report that the efforts of the state department to replace the relations of the two countries in a state of cordial friendship and mutual confidence, was inspired by the president's conviction that to do so, so far as consistent with the dignity and honor of the United States and with the principles of justice, was a plain duty. He pointed out, however, that as the subject of arbitration was now being urged by Colombia it seemed obvious that no terms of arbitral submission could be entertained which might call in question the right of Panama to exist as a sovereign state. Supporting this view, he quoted from Secretary Hay a declaration to turn to the Taague tribunal, because the questions presented in Colombian statement of grievances, were of a public nature and not in the jurisdiction of a commission.

Criticizes Colombian Government.

The report criticised the Colombian government for repeated failure to carry out its engagement during the course of the negotiations and asserted that the Hay-Herran treaty of 1913 failed because the Colombian president by an amazing departure from the practice of the nations declined to recommend for approval a treaty sign under the explicit direction of his predecessor. He charged that the negotiation of the subsequent treaties—those framed by Secretary Root for the adjustment of all questions between the three countries—actually were proposed by the government of Colombia itself which now had refused to give them effect. Reference is made to the very inconsistent reversion of the Colombian representatives to attempt to create false issues, followed on one occasion by the virtual recall of one of the plenipotentiaries.

Secretary Reviews Propositions.

The secretary reviews at length new propositions made by Colombia which were considered, but which that country expects the incoming administration in Washington to accept. Secretary Knox concludes with the remark that Colombia's attitude undoubtedly was due in a great measure to a radical misconception of real public opinion in the United States engendered probably by reiterated criticisms in certain uninformed quarters.

SUPERBS START FOR SOUTH

New York, March 1.—A dozen players Brooklyn Nat. league baseball team accompanied by Trainer Dan Comerford, sailed to day for Savannah, en route to August, where they are to get into trim for the coming season. The party included Pitcher Stack, Catchers Erwin and Phelps and several of the recruits. Pitchers Ragan, Allen and Rucker are already in the south, while other members of the team will proceed to Augusta direct from their homes.

BLAMES "STAY-AT-HOME" MEMBERS

Chicago, March 1.—Speaker William McKinley, of the Illinois house of representatives, in a speech before the Iroquois club here today declared that failure of the general assembly to elect senators to fill Illinois' two vacancies, was due to legislators being absent from the post of duty.

"If all the men had been present last Thursday we would have filled both senatorial seats," he said. "Many of the members were away and it is upon those stay-at-home members that responsibility for the failure rests. When a lawyer is elected to the legislature he should arrange his business so as not to interfere with his public duties. That is what I did. The same rule should apply to men in other lines of business. The people expect their legislators to be at their posts during sessions and attending to the public business."

The legislature has adjourned to March 12 and I believe that this is a good thing, as it will give the members a chance to confer with their constituents over the deadlock situation. I will keep every member at his desk when we resume, so far as the speaker's authority can be extended to do so, until we have elected two senators."

Mr. McKinley said that Thursday's vote could not be construed into an election of Colonel Lewis senator. St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—The all members had been present Thursday Colonel Lewis would have been elected.

MAKES PUBLIC FINAL NOTE FROM ENGLAND

KNOX ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF COMMUNICATION

Britains Insist That Panama Canal
Tolls Dispute is Case For Settlement
Under Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 1.—Great Britain's final word to the Taft administration on the Panama canal tolls dispute made public to day, insisted that a case for settlement under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty has arisen, but suggested in effect that there would not be time to discuss the subject further before the United States government changed hands.

Secretary of State Knox, acknowledged receipt of this communication without committing the state department to an answer, reserving to his successor the decision on the question on whether it is proper to make such answer at all, or to await another communication from the British government continuing the argument.

Submitted to Knox.

This latest British note which was submitted to Secretary Knox yesterday, instead of being a communication from Sir Edward Grey, the foreign minister was a set of "observations" by Ambassador Beace. The ambassador explained his reasons for submitting at this stage an objection to the contention in the last American note that Sir Edward Grey was arguing a hypothetical case and that there was no reason for his protest in advance of the actual collection of tolls from British ships, while American ships were allowed to pass free.

The ambassador says his majesty's government dissents from that view and conceives "that international law or usage, does not support the doctrine that they assing of a statute in contravention of a treaty right affords no ground of complaint for the infringement of that right and that the nation which holds that its treaty rights have been so infringed or brought into question by a denial that they must exist, before protesting and seeking the means of determining the point at issue wait until some further action violating those rights is a concrete instance has been taken which in the present instance, would according to your argument, seem to mean, until tolls have been actually levied upon British vessels from which vessels owned by citizens of the United States have been exempted."

Do Not Affect Issue.

"The terms of the proclamation issued by the president fixing the canal tolls and the particular method which your note sets forth as having been adopted by him, in his discretion on a given occasion, for determining of what basis they should be fixed do not appear to His majesty's government to affect the general issue as to the meaning of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty which they have raised."

In the British opinion according to the ambassador, "the mere conferring by congress of power to fix lower tolls on United States ships than on British ships amounts to a denial of the right of British shipping to equality of treatment, and is therefore inconsistent with the treaty irrespective of the particular way in which such power has been so far actually exercised."

The ambassador hold that "the difference which exists between these two governments is clearly one which falls within the meaning of article 1, of the arbitration treaty of 1908."

'FIFTY THOUSAND' VISITORS ARRIVE

Washington, March 1.—Fifty thousand visitors, it was estimated by railroad officials, had reached Washington tonight, as the vanguard of the quarter of a million expected to witness the first inauguration in twenty years of a Democratic president of the United States.

Tonight Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the white house was ambalozed with arches of electric lights through which passed increasing thousands as rapidly as trains from every section reached the city.

Enthusiasm was apparent everywhere, in hotel lobbies, restaurants, theaters and the main thoroughfares, with arriving clubs and military companies which are to participate in the inaugural parade contributing to the general excitement.

Official completion of the inauguration plans now await the arrival of President-elect Woodrow Wilson, who will reach Washington at 3:45 Monday afternoon, escorted by special train loads of Princeton university students and the Essex troop from New Jersey which is to act as his official escort in the inaugural procession.

REDFIELD IS NAMED SEC'Y. OF COMMERCE

Trenton Report Names
William C. Redfield of Brooklyn for Cabinet

BRANDEIS NOT NAMED

Boston Man Mentioned for Cabinet Position Will Not be in the New Cabinet

THREE PLACES TO BE NAMED

NEW YORK, MARCH 1.—Congressman William C. Redfield of Brooklyn will be secretary of commerce in the Wilson cabinet. Louis D. Brandeis of Boston, whose name has been mentioned for this post will not be in the new cabinet. This information was received tonight from an authoritative source in Trenton, N. J.

Three places in the new cabinet—the port folios of war, interior and agriculture—still are under consideration by President-elect Wilson. Only himself and one other person know the names of the men to be sent to the senate for confirmation for these three places.

It was stated, however, that none of the names that have been prominently mentioned for any of these three places will be included in the final list. This statement bars the names of former Governor Norris of Montana; former Governor Burke of North Dakota; Joseph Peall, of Oregon; former Governor Hawley of Idaho; State Chairman Tallman of Nevada; J. B. Sullivan of Iowa and Col. George Goethals, from further consideration for cabinet places. In the list also probably will be the names of President Henry Waters of the Kansas state agricultural college; Senator Obethiah Gardner, of Maine; Prof. Charles W. Dabney of the University of Cincinnati, all of whom have been mentioned for secretary of agriculture.

The cabinet places that have been filled, according to the Trenton informant, are William J. Bryan of Nebraska, secretary of state; William G. McAdoo of New York, secretary of the treasury; James McReynolds of Tennessee, attorney general; William C. Redfield of Brooklyn, secretary of commerce; Albert S. Burleson of Texas, postmaster general; William B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, secretary of labor and Josephus Daniels of North Carolina, secretary of the navy.

The selection of Congressman Redfield for secretary of commerce, it was said, was made by President-elect Wilson because of his expert knowledge on the tariff, a subject he discussed with Mr. Wilson many times during the campaign and on which he was called in conference. In preparing his speeches last summer Mr. Wilson it was said last night, frequently had occasion to consult Mr. Redfield.

No cabinet names will be announced, it was said, until Mr. Wilson sends the final list to the senate for confirmation.

SUFFRAGISTS START FOR CAPITAL

One Hundred and Fifty Will March in Inaugural Parade—Party Cheered By Great Crowd.

Chicago, March 1.—While a great crowd of men and women alternately cheered and sang "America," the special train bearing the hundred and fifty Illinois suffragists who will participate in the inaugural ceremonies at Washington next Tuesday left here tonight.

The party expects to arrive in Washington at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon. For an hour prior to this departure of the train the station was a scene of great activity. Scores of suffragists besides those who made the trip came to give cheers or the cause and sing patriotic songs. Many men came, too, and although not all of them sang their deep voices frequently mingled in the singing. There were "rahs, rahs" too, for Illinois and the suffrage movement.

There was a rear platform speech by Mrs. G. Wilbur Trout, president of the suffrage organization, just before the train left.

"We are not going to Washington to be spectacular," she said. "We are going to march for great principles."

The crowd applauded vigorously. The train was profusely decorated with yellow flags and pennants bearing the insignia "Votes for Women." Most of the suffragists wore their marching uniforms, consisting of white hats with blue stars on the band and scarfs bearing the word, "Illinois," and nine blue stars in honor of the states that have granted equal suffrage.

In every way the meet was a big success and all the schools participating entered in the game with a vim and push and some splendid matches were played off. Jacksonville lost to Pittsfield earlier in the afternoon and later defeated them. The championship game was an interesting one and Mt. Sterling put up a splendid game. Mt. Sterling has a fast team and it will be remembered they beat by one point the final winner of the district tournament in Canton recently. Chandlerville was forced to forfeit the game to Jacksonville because three of the players were out of commission. One man had a broken bone in his hand, an injury he received Friday; another player had a bum knee and a third was sick.

The attendance was unusually large, and especially did the students of the city attend largely. The J. H. S. band furnished splendid music throughout and the officials did their part in making the two day's meet a go. Especial mention should be made of W. A. Ryan of Alton, who acted in the capacity of referee. In every way his work was satisfactory.

The following were the officials:

THE ROBERTS COFFEES

The coffee market continues very active and if the reasons that are given for higher priced coffees could be taken for granted, coffee would advance to a price that the Rich only could enjoy even the poorest coffee.

Newspapers and periodicals continue to write about the coffee trust—coffee shortage and the gigantic schemes to hold up the price of coffees, but in spite of all this the people will have coffee and as long as they will buy the same amount of coffee, we will likely see higher prices, as the production has been reduced and the usual consumption is increasing.

The QUALITY we are giving in our Six Different Blends is certainly demonstrative that we have figured to take care of you on Quality and Price on Coffee. 28, 33 1-3, 35, 37 1/2, 40 and 45c per pound.

THE COURIER'S 30TH BIRTHDAY.

The Jacksonville Courier yesterday celebrated its thirtieth anniversary and in honor of that important occasion published a two-page illustrated story giving the history of the Courier from 1883 until the present. The article includes a half tone of the late George E. Doying, founder of the Daily Courier, together with others of the Courier building and employees. The past three decades have been years of growth for the Courier and today it is a newspaper of recognized worth and strength.

W. L. Fay who knew Mr. Doying well, paid tribute to him, in part as follows, in the anniversary edition: "My acquaintance with Mr. Doying began soon after his location in this city and continued until his death. He was a man of great courage and enterprise in business, an honorable, straightforward competitor, and a man who, with his decided convictions on public (especially political) matters, made some enemies yet had a host of friends. To the close, hard work and business ability of Mr. Doying is due the long life and continued success of the Courier, and he was ably seconded by a loyal wife who did her full share in the home and household. George E. Doying was a man who helped make the world better in his day, and much of the good that he planned and strove for lives, an example to his children and to his friends."

ROBS CASH REGISTER.

Sometime during Friday night, burglars entered the grocery store of William Coverly and relieved the cash register of $2.00. An attempt to get into the safe failed. The work is thought to be that of local parties.

Mr. Coverly was puzzled when he went to count up his money from the register Saturday night to find that he was $20 short and then it occurred to him that the thieves had rung up the amount.

DR. HANCHER'S FAREWELL

Editor Journal:

I take my leave of Jacksonville with regret. I came to you with interest, remained with you in confidence, and leave you with mingled emotions. The perplexities of your problem were mine with you and the real joy of your triumph I share to the full.

There are two essential factors, and the only two in a movement of this kind, the first is publicity, the second is organization. The Jacksonville press gave constant and competent publicity. Jacksonville people organized themselves for team work to the best advantage in every way. The Jacksonville women—well they undertook with fear and trembling, to raise $10,000. When noses were counted at the finish, notwithstanding the men were short on their $50,000 by exactly $1,008, the women were ahead on their $10,000 by exactly $1,207. Generous, as is the custom of women, they let it apply to the credit of the men for after all it is one cause.

It was all over Friday night, and then Saturday: my what a chapel service! $7,500 new subscriptions at chapel, but the end was not yet. Evening came and dinner at the Woman's college, and there was another $8,000. No wonder students and faculty went wild. Looks like, if the outside didn't get into the game pretty soon, Harker would give all this himself. $60,199, in Jacksonville and Morgan county since we began in November; $15,500 from president, faculty and students, and a little better than $2,000 from outside the county. Nearly $78,000 since November. About $54,000 yet to get; but I leave it with you. I was glad to join you and shall be happy in the memory of you. For all courtesies, recognition and distinguished consideration, I thank everybody and beg you to believe me the sincere well wisher of the people of Jacksonville and the Illinois Woman's college.

BUILDING UP A CITY.

The outlook for the extension of street paving in this city for the coming year is not encouraging. Many of our streets are in wretched condition, paving being badly worn. But under our present system it seems almost impossible to secure petitions signed by a sufficient number of property owners on any one street, either for resurfacing or for new paving. One reason for this, perhaps, increased cost, the city having abandoned its former plan of paying for intersections from the general fund, assessing all costs against the property on the streets to be paved. The paving of a street in many cases is a hardship to some individuals and when the costs are run up to an excessive amount considering the value of the property abutting, it is a burden to many, and when they believe that in part it is for the general good of the city, and that as the entire population is benefited they should, at least shoulder a part of the burden, property owners are wary of suggesting paving. It is a result to be deplored, a city cannot well stand still and the absence of public improvement shows a lack of civic pride and spirit.

The ladies of Elgin are setting the pace in beautifying and cleaning up that city, and the action of the business men of Elgin is one that should work as an example to our Chamber of Commerce and its directors. The new organization is well officered. The president, Fount J. Andrews, is a public spirited, enterprising business man, who has no political aspirations or axe to grind, other than the general betterment of the city of Jacksonville. A suggestion has been made that the new board begin work at home and endeavor to improve what we already have while at the same time keeping on the lookout for new enterprises where they consider they will be of benefit to the general public.

Much can be done by organized movement. Jacksonville is one of the handsomest towns in the state of Illinois. But it could be improved in beauty, in cleanliness, in its playgrounds and the down town city parks. Its accommodations for strangers and visitors. President Andrews and the new Chamber of Commerce and the city commissioners could do a great deal to further these objects. Begin some good work at home. The example of the Elgin board is one that we commend to the Jacksonville board.

Speaking of improvements and new enterprises. A few years ago a proposition was laid before the directors of the Jacksonville Business Men's association offering to establish in this city a factory employing from seventy-five to one hundred young men and girls, provided the citizens of this city would donate $25,000 or $30,000 and furnish several acres of ground for building. It looked attractive. The firm making the proposition was said to be a good one. The matter was gravely considered, and the question arose as to the life of the enterprise. On that point little satisfaction could be obtained. Meantime a member speaking of a local concern, one that has been established for seventy-five years, commended to be looking for and interested in new enterprises it might also be well to know that the same amount of money devoted to lines of business already here would lead to double that investment in new buildings and grounds and facilities for the employment of as many young men and women as the Business Men's association could furnish from the vicinity. And then the subject was dropped, as have been many other plausible schemes that were being seeking the city that would make the largest cash donation, regardless of the availability of the site for the business proposed.

Ask the average resident regarding manufactures and manufacturing establishments and he will say we have none, yet there are a number in this city, successful business enterprises, whose pay rolls are large, and their business increasing annually, notwithstanding the fact that they have never asked a dollar from the public. Few know of the number of people employed, or the wide extent of territory covered, or their lines of manufacture, of "Capps' factory"—a concern that has a nation wide reputation, and whose goods are sought after. Their magazine advertising in the past few years has helped place Jacksonville on the map. "Capps" have grown from a small beginning, from father to sons and grand sons until they are a firm and an institution to be proud of. The amount of their pay roll each month helps keep several hundred families in comfort.

In the wholesale line, W. A. Jenkinson has built up a business in groceries and grocers supplies that has been very successful. Mr. Jenkinson's business increased so rapidly that it was recently incorporated into a strong company that is still farther expanding its business and territory. Mr. Jenkinson, showing his faith in Jacksonville, has almost finished the erection of large, substantial buildings, and will in July begin the manufacture of bread and crackers, investing probably $7,500 in this new enterprise, not asking a dollar of donation. But members and directors of the new Chamber of Commerce and all citizens can help by good words and encouragement.

In the manufacture of cigars our city is a leading one. The number of men employed in the different factories is large, and the wages earned help in the general trade of the city. One can buy a better cigar in Jacksonville for the money than they can in that great cigar manufacturing town of Ebor, near Tampa, Florida.

The Illinois Steel Bridge Co., is another concern that is constantly extending its business, increasing their capital and reaching out after new territory. It is a local enterprise and one that is making good. They were frequently advertising for men in the past season, in an endeavor to keep up with their orders.

And there are others, too numerous to mention, as they say in the sale bills. Look after them, boost them. Let the new board make a study of conditions right at our doors, and see what they can do to spread abroad the value of what we have. It may help to bring something new legitimately.

Pure, clean water from the Illinois river sands will soon be pumped into the city in abundance. Don't forget that in your boosting.

And we really believe the suggestion regarding the ladies and the "Elgin plan" is worthy the consideration of President Andrews and the directory of the new board of commerce.

"The Trenton idea," so named from the action of the Commercial club of Trenton, Mo., in inviting farmers as well as merchants to become members of their association, is a new one, and worthy of consideration. Farmers are made members, and convinced that their interests in a business way can be conserved, and that socially the membership may be of benefit to both town and country. Today, comments the Chicago Herald, they say "we" instead of "you."

"The Trenton idea" admits of expansion. Farmers and merchants are producers, consumers or conservers of wealth, and have mutual interests. They should get together and have that understanding of each other's aims and methods that brings sympathy with every right undertaking and causes a spirit of co-operation. How many towns are there to which "the Trenton idea" might be applied? Many, surely, and perhaps even the large cities might find it profitable.

The Ladies Aid of Liberty church will serve oysters on election day at Markham.

THE BUFFALO NICKLE.

The new issue of nickels authorized minted by the government are beginning to take their allotted place as money, but as yet few of the coins have been seen in this city. The coin is in size and appearance similar to the V nickel which has for the past several years been in circulation. On one side of the new coin is an Indian head which almost covers the allotted space, and on the obverse of the coin is a buffalo.

Constable J. A. Crum was showing one of the new nickels Saturday. The coin was sent from his brother in Denver, and it was one of a lot recently turned out at the mint in Denver. Jerald Taylor also had one of these coins secured from Washington.

LARGE SUMS GIVEN TO ENDOWMENT FUND

WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

$7,500 Given by Students and Faculty and Another $8,000 Gift From President Harker—Testimonial of Love and Respect Paid Dr. Harker.

While tears dimmed many eyes and voices trembled with emotion, students, faculty and trustees of Illinois Woman's College applauded and cheered Dr. J. R. Harker Saturday night as he stood beside Mrs. Harker in the dining room of the college and made public acknowledgment that without his wife's aid he never have carried on his work or have accomplished the tasks that have been his. Then Dr. Harker announced he would give, in addition to gifts already made, $8,000 for the endowment fund, in the name of Mrs. Harker and the entire company arose and joined in a salute. Then as all joined hands they sang that beautiful hymn: Best Be the Tie That Binds.

The pledge of $8,000 made Saturday night makes $16,000 Dr. Harker has given in the present campaign and a total of $23,000 within the past few years.

Great Service at Chapel.
Saturday was indeed a great day for the College. At the chapel exercises in the morning the girls were in absolute charge and nobody was more surprised than Dr. Harker when announcement was made of contributions of $6,750 from students and $1,750 from the faculty. Of this sum only $1,000 had been previously made known. The scene at the chapel exercises was one of wonderful enthusiasm and the memory of it will linger long with those who were present. The girls had been allowed to make all the arrangements for the demonstration and their plans were unique indeed. As the campaign figures now stand they are: $60,199 from Jacksonville and Morgan county, including $8,000 from Dr. Harker; $15,500 from president, faculty and students; altogether about $78,000 since last November; $48,000 previously subscribed, leaving a total yet to secure of about $54,000 by next June.

Song Dedicated to Dr. Harker.
At five o'clock members of the faculty, board of trustees and the student body mingled in the college parlors for a social hour and then assembled in the dining room for dinner. After dessert, Dr. Harker, in fitting words expressed his deep appreciation for the wise counsel, the unflinching support, and the splendid leadership by Dr. Harker and expressed the belief that a very large part of the success of the campaign was due to him. The whole company arose with one accord and with sparkling water drank to the health of Dr. Harker. Then they joined in the following song which some of the young ladies composed for the occasion.

When the Board of Education wanted a good man
They turned the country upside down each citizen to scan.
They lauded Dr. Harker, and they said: "Now if you can Use both your lungs for Endowment!"
Chorus.
Hurrah! Hurrah! There's nothing he cannot do.
As educator, counsellor and organizer too.
Harker's the man for Endowment.

We once were glad to see him come,
We hate to see him go.
His size is large, his mind's alert,
In him there's nothing slow.
His big bass voice has made the town step up the mark to toe.
Booming the while for Endowment.

Chorus.
Hurrah! Hurrah! There's nothing he cannot do.
Hurrah! Hurrah! He sticks to things like glue.
The Board of Education went and started something new.
When they got Harker for Endowment.

During Dr. Harker's stay here he has often addressed the students and has come to hold a very warm place in their hearts.

Joseph the Dreamer.
When the words of the song had died away Miss Weaver, dean of the faculty, told an allegory of Joseph the dreamer, who saw in a vision one who could make dollars roll up hill and how acting upon the thought inspired by that vision, one Joseph R. Harker sent for one Dr. Harker, who had responded to the call and had in truth made the dollars roll in an astonishing sort of way. It was a beautifully phrased tribute to Dr. Harker as a dreamer of great dreams, who toils tirelessly to have the dreams come true and to Dr. Harker, who labors with zeal and success in assisting in the realization of such dreams.

Words and Praise and Loyalty.
The company applauded vigorously and then without any words of introduction seven young women arose at intervals to testify to great love and admiration for Dr. Harker. Dr. Harker, Mrs. Lambert, the college, the faculty and the students themselves. As a resident of Jacksonville and still as one of the college faculty Miss Lula D. Hay spoke and the representatives of the student body were Misses Farrell Hess, Helen Moore, Celia Cathcart, Emily Jane Allen, Lois Conliss and Letta Irwin. Their sentiments were evidently from hearts brimming with emotion and were couched in choicest language. Mrs. Lambert responding made graceful acknowledgment and Dr. Harker then in a more extended way expressed his appreciation for the honor that had been shown him. He had expected nothing of the kind he said and while he had been thanked and praised in other cities where he had worked he said he had never before had a party of this kind given in his honor and had never had such encomiums so impressively heaped upon his head. Then Dr. Harker, standing behind Dr. and Mrs. Harker, who sat near him, said that to those two belonged the greatest praise for the unceasing work they had done through the past twenty years in building up and making possible such an institution as the Woman's college is today.

New Pledge of $8,000.
When Dr. Harker had finished Dr. Harker rose and in a voice which made clear his feeling of emotion in simple language told of the loyalty, support and encouragement which Mrs. Harker had given him through the years in building up the college and said that without such aid the work would never have been done. Then he quietly stated that in the name of Mrs. Harker he had decided to give an additional $8,000 to the college. It was a moment in which heart touched heart, in which the whole company felt that touch of nature which made them all akin. They joined hands, sang "Best Be the Tie That Binds" and then all left the dining room for the rooms above as the students sang the college song of triumph.

Big Contribution Announced.
The enthusiasm with which the students took part in the campaign was shown at the chapel service Sunday morning, which was conducted by the girls themselves. Dr. Harker knew nothing of the plans of the girls or of the magnificent $6,750 subscription the students had raised. He took his seat on the platform and awaited with interest the first event on the program which proved to be a "dollar" military drill, conducted by a party of sixteen girls dressed in white bearing a wooden gun to which was attached a sack marked with a dollar sign. The girls marched in to stirring strains and taking their stand on the front of the platform sang the college song and cheered enthusiastically for Dr. Harker and Dr. Harker. The military drill was commanded by Miss Hess, who at the conclusion of the exercise, bade them load, aim and fire, which they did by exploding the paper bags. Another interesting event was a drill by six girls representing ways of earning money for the college. One girl was a shoe-shiner, a third was a sewing girl, two carried miniature wash tubs and scrubbing boards while the last was outfitted as a manicure artist.

Earning Money in Pantomime.
A number of girls then appeared on the stage who seemed to be producing money for the endowment fund. When Dr. Harker caught the meaning of their pantomime, he reached in his pocket for the endowment chart. He handed it first to Mrs. Lambert, who has been instrumental in raising some of the out of town subscriptions and whom he called to the platform to make the marks representing these gifts. Amid heated enthusiasm and cheers from everyone she placed a mark in two of the thousand dollar squares after which Dr. Harker marked off two more, representing a total of $4,000 of outside subscriptions not before announced. Amid cheers for each thousand, the balance of the $10,000 Jacksonville subscriptions was marked off a thousand at a time. The task of giving credit for the immense student subscription then followed. Five thousand, seven hundred and fifty dollars of this only was marked off on the squares, as the $1,000 contributed by the Y. W. C. A. had been announced already. The faculty's contribution of $1,750 was then marked off of the chart, bringing the grand total of pledges at that time to $117,500.

Will Be Example For Others.
Dr. Harker paused here to offer a few earnest words of prayer, giving thanks for the bounteous good that has been heaped upon the college. Dr. Harker made a brief talk standing in the midst a large pile of the discarded "money" sacks the young ladies had thrown upon the stage. He said that the good of these generous gifts would not stop with the Woman's college but would exert an influence far beyond. He said he would tell their story to the people of Jacksonville to encourage them in their million dollar campaign subscription for Goucher college.

Dr. Harker dismissed chapel with the announcement that the rest of the day was a holiday and Dr. Harker warned the girls not to study too hard.

THE POWER OF STEAM

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Watt's discovery. Watt's hair, and consequent baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair. Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

RIVERS ELIGIBLE TO BATTLE WITH BEST

WAS FIRST TO DEFEAT "K. O." BROWN DECISIVELY.

Proved He is One of the Hardest Hitting Light Weights in Country "In Go With Brown—Kilbane a 'Real Champion'."

By James J. Corbett.

Former Heavy-weight Champion of the World.

Written for the Jacksonville Journal. Joe Rivers was not presented with one of Tom McCarey's championship belts for stopping "K. O." Brown in ten rounds, but he accomplished a feat that was beyond the best efforts of Ad Wolgast, Matt Wells, Tommy Murphy, Leach Cross and other good "uns of the ring. And incidentally Joe proved he is one of the hardest hitting light-weights in the country, and eligible for battle with the best the division can produce.

While Brown could not be classed with the top-notchers he was a tough proposition, and before Rivers turned the trick, had never been beaten decisively. "K. O." was noted more for endurance and capacity for punishment than for any degree of skill with the gloves. His notion of scientific boxing was to rush an opponent or to stand toe and exchange wallops. As nature endowed him with an unusually sturdy physique he got away with this style of work for several years. His awkward method of standing with right hand extended and right foot forward puzzled many opponents, but made him a mark for a good right hand hitter. I saw him in a number of matches in the east and the only boxer who "got next" to his style was Matt Wells, the English light-weight. But Wells lacked the wallop to stop Brown although he outpointed the local pride a mile.

Rivers is booked for New York in the near future. The empire club wants the Mexican to go the ten round route with Leach Cross again, and he will hardly turn down the chance for big money. When the boys met about two months ago Rivers came close to putting Cross away in the last round. Joe was handicapped in that engagement by the Eastern rules, but when he got the hang of things and knew just how far he go with the "rough stuff" he sailed into Leach like a young tiger and at the sound of the final gong the latter was nearly "in". The consensus of opinion is that Rivers will stop the local man the next time out.

From all accounts that must have been a hair raising battle Ad Wolgast and Tommy Murphy put up for twenty rounds at Jim Coffroth's club the same day Rivers squelched Brown's aspirations. At the end of the bout the referee couldn't decide a winner, and the newspaper critics agreed with him that it was a pretty even thing.

Tommy did not try to fight a clever battle but elected to mix it with the ex-champion right from the start. This is the sort of milling Wolgast prefers and the fact that the veteran Murphy was able to hold him to a draw at his favorite style indicates that he has not regained the form that made him invincible before the operation for appendicitis sapped his vitality.

In the latter part of the fight Murphy tried perceptibly and was unable to evolve a successful defense against Wolgast's punches, but the blows seemed to do him little damage. While Ad fought what was probably his best battle since his illness it is evident he no longer carries the hefty punch that stopped sturdier boys than Murphy in the past. The opinion of experts present at the mill is that he would have slight chance to regain the title in another battle with Ritchie.

Packey McFarland and Jack Britton have at last been corralled for a ten round bout. The articles have been signed and sealed, the weights arranged, and the split of the dough adjusted to the satisfaction of everybody concerned. All that remains is for the boys to climb through the ropes and start things. This interesting event is scheduled for Madison Square Garden next Friday night, and it goes without saying that the immense arena will be packed to the doors with loyal fans who have long been rooting for this clever pair to settle their differences.

I have frequently expressed my opinion concerning the probable outcome, but it may interest my readers to have my views once more now that the match has been clinched. Packey is probably the most scientific boxer in the ring today. Britton is modeled somewhat on the McFarland plan, but comparing the men on their New York exhibitions he hardly looks the equal in skill of his rival Chicagoan. Jack showed in a recent bout with Young Ahearn that his round arm style of hitting leaves him open at times for a fast left lead, and it is needless to say that if Ahearn's left annoyed Britton, McFarland will be sure to take advantage of every opportunity to sting him with that member. While I expect Packey to lead on points throughout the contest I hardly look for the bout to terminate before the limit, although considerable ill feeling exists and there is no telling what may happen in a grudge battle. However, I doubt if the mill will develop into a slaughter, and look for the boys to regale the sports with a high form of Queensbury entertainment.

Local critics are at last forced to admit Kilbane is a "real champion." Johnny's display of form when he stopped George Kirkwood, the hard hitting St. Louis feather-weight, so impressed the experts that they are now ready to concede him a chance when he boxes Johnny Dundee in Los Angeles next month.

To my way of thinking Kilbane's victory over Kirkwood does not stamp him as a worthy holder of the feather-weight title. Not that it lowers him any in my estimation as a great boxer, but because Kirkwood had demonstrated in recent contests that he was on the down grade. Only a few weeks ago he boxed Teddy Hubbs, a youngster from Pittsburgh, and was given a thorough trouncing for ten rounds. So I fail to see where the champion gained much prestige by stopping him in six.

Kilbane's performances in this city with Dundee and Keefe were far more impressive than his showing with Kirkwood, or I am no judge. Still it was his failure to stop those lads that started the local critics on his trail. Dundee and Keefe are both clever boys, that is as compared with Kirkwood whose chief claim to fame has rested on his ability to put over a knock-out punch every now and again. As a boxer Kirkwood does not amount to much. A champion has his work cut out to please everybody. The trouble is too much I invariably expected of him. Kilbane came fresh from his victory over the great Abe Attell, and when he failed to annihilate his opponents he was branded a false alarm. If any other feather-weight succeeded in out pointing Dundee as cleanly as Kilbane managed the job, he would be boosted as a "coming champion", for the little Italian is highly regarded hereabouts.

I am a great admirer of Kilbane both as a boxer and as a member of society. I consider him every bit as clever a boxer as Attell ever dared to be, and Abe could go some, we all know. I think he is a harder hitter than the average feather-weight, and while hardly the equal of Terry McGovern or Young Corbett in that respect, his record suggests that he can wield a mighty good punch when occasion demands. His clean knock-out of Joe Rivers lends weight to the line of argument. However, like the majority of skillful boxers Kilbane is attitudinized to demonstrate superiority by outpointing his rivals.

Luther McCarty is a trifle tardy in his announcement that he wants to box Bombadier Wells. Only a couple of weeks ago Manager Gibson, of the Garden offered him a guarantee of $10,000 to meet Wells and he refused accept. Gibson then arranged a match between Wells and Gunboat Smith, and scheduled it for March 14. And if the Bombadier wins that event Jess Willard is to have the next chance with the Englishman, provided the elongated boxer can adjust his differences with the State Commission.

McCarty and Wells would make the ideal match, but it looks as if Luther has missed his chance for the time being. If sincere in his desire to return to the ring he can do business with "One Round" Davis, the Buffalo heavy-weight, who I am told is just pining away for want of suitable exercise.

If the French sports have made Billy Ploke a 1 to 2 favorite, over Frank Klaus for their battle next Wednesday, as Al Lippe writes, I am at a loss to understand their method of handicapping fighters. On his recent form in this country Parke would not be thatath a choice over a good husky light-weight. Still the Frenchmen may not be the boobs we imagine. Such odds suggest that is "something doing."

CHATS WITH GREAT MEN OF THE CIVIL WAR

By Mrs. Gen. Pickett.

Copyright, 1913, by The Press Publishing Co.
(The New York Evening World.)

GEN. PHIL SHERIDAN

Pat Wall, one of the war department messengers, brought me a note from Gen. Rufus Ingalls, then quartermaster general of the United States army, asking if he might bring Gen. Phil Sheridan to call, as he was anxious to meet the wife of Gen. Pickett. I replied that I should be most happy to see Gen. Sheridan and named a time.

The "gay rider" proved, as my soldier had described him to be, modest, warm-hearted, genial, exceedingly jolly, original, entertaining, a little abrupt, and most unaffected. "I have often wanted to meet you," Gen. Sheridan, I said, "and have frequently, as you may have heard, taken your name in vain. At the reunion of the blue and gray at Gettysburg in 1887, when the Philadelphia brigade and Pickett's men shook hands across the bloody chasm. Col. Charles Bain of Philadelphia, in his welcoming address, spoke of that meeting as being the first reunion of the blue and gray. In my response I said:

"My friends; Col. Bain has made only one mistake. This is not the first reunion. The first one was at Appomattox, when Sheridan's soldiers shared their rations with Pickett's ragged, half-starved men, and when Sheridan himself handed his pocketbook to Pickett and said, 'Here, Pickett, take this for I know, you haven't a d—cent.' And he hadn't, general, and he took the purse from you in the same spirit in which it was offered."

"I'll be blanketed blanked if he did, madam. You know, Pickett wanted to make me a present of Lucy, that beautiful splendid mare of his on which he took those long rides from Orange court house into Richmond and from Suffolk into the devil knows where, to see a certain Lady Beautiful of his acquaintance. I have always wished to heaven I had taken the mare, too, for when old Rufus here got cold feet and he and Suckley and old Jug Pitcher exaggerated Ben Butler's power and underrated the Grant-Lee cartel and scared Pickett into flying the coop, he killed that magnificent animal driving her to catch a train from some point where he wouldn't be caught himself."

"I don't know why it is, general," said I, "that instead of associating you in my mind, as would be most natural, with our own cavalry general, J. E. B. Stuart, I somehow always think of you in connection with our serious and solemn Stonewall Jackson, though I know you are directly opposite in every way to the great Cromwellian who always prayed as he fought."

"It is not at all strange, madam, for we were not so dissimilar as one might suppose. In the first place, we neither of us ever made a single mistake in our lives and we never let the other fellow know where we were, where we were going or what we were up to. Then, again, neither of us was a Solomon, or distinguished himself at West Point, and nobody ever suspected that either of us would amount to a row of pins.

"But, you see, at the beginning of the war I got snowed under six foot deep in that old rascal's department (pointing to Gen. Ingalls). The quartermaster generals and quartermasters don't now, never did, and never will amount to anything, any time, anyhow. True, old Jack and I were a little dissimilar in that he never smiled and I am always smiling except when I am taking a snuffle—Rey, Rufus, how's that?—and then old Jack was a great church-going Presbyterian and was always praying, and I—well, I call upon the Lord just as often as he did, oftener, I suspect, but in a rather different and more demanding way. Hey, Rufus?

"If I were a Spiritualist, madam, like one of my brother general officers, I say that when old Jack got tired of resting under the shade of the trees and reported at the Golden Gate, St. Peter set him wise and showed him he was on the wrong side down here. And old Jack, acknowledging for the first time in his life that he had made a mistake, determined to make amends and undo the harm he had done by getting ahead of us so often and gave me the tip and became my 'control'. For you see, I never came to the front and wasn't heard of often till old Jack had passed in his checks."

"I have never forgiven you, general," I said, "for Five Forks. 'Forgive me, madam? Why, Five Forks enabled your husband to fight his greatest battle. You see, I fought regardless of all the rules of war and you fellows on the other side didn't know which way the cat was going to jump. When I got to Five Forks and saw the lay of the land I issued orders for a hurry march of all the troops behind me, dismounted my cavalry, seized my flag and led my men myself. And bully for old Jack's spirit and the other spirits, and for poor Lee, who had raised every section and knew every loophole for Lee's escape. The grand old man was caught like a rat in a trap by little Phil."

"Where were you at the breaking out of the war, and did you know my soldier?"

"Of course I did. I was on the frontier. They say, madam, that when I heard war had been declared I threw up my hat and cried, 'Here's to a captaincy, or a six-foot-by-two,' and that old Jack, who was teaching the young idea how to shoot their a. b. c., dismissed his class and went to prayer meeting."

Slain Ex-President, His Wife and His Father and Ambassador Wilson, Representing U. S. In Mexico.

Photos of the elder Madero and Ambassador Wilson copyright by American Press Association.

Official assassination as a method of removing persons undesirable to those in power in Mexico reached its climax when Francisco I. Madero, Jr., ex-president, and Jose Pino Suarez, ex-vice president, were shot to death while being taken to the penitentiary in Mexico City. General Huerta, provisional president, reported that the deaths occurred by accident during an attempt by certain Madero supporters to rescue the prisoners. Above is shown a picture of the slain ex-president and his wife on the left, his father, Francisco I. Madero, Sr., in the middle and Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson, representing the United States in the troubled country.

RECORD CROWD WILL GREET PRESIDENT WILSON

Ceremonies of Inauguration Promise to be Brilliant and Picturesque—Bad Weather Even Cannot Chill Democratic Ardor.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—Preparations for the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall, the first Democratic president and vice-president that the country has had in sixteen years, are complete and the various committees make the prophecy that the ceremonies of next Tuesday will be the most brilliant and picturesque of any previous inaugural event. Prediction is made also that when Mr. Wilson and Mr. Marshall ride down Pennsylvania avenue on the way to the capitol to take the oath of office the greatest crowd that ever welcomed an incoming president and vice-president will shout itself hoarse.

The inaugural committee has used every means in its power to make the celebration one that will live in the minds of all who witness it for years to come. In point of brilliancy of decoration, in the matter of the inaugural parade, in the arrangements for the illumination of the city and a display of fireworks Tuesday night it is believed that the Wilson and Marshall inauguration will surpass all others.

The inaugural ball will be the only customary feature left out of the programme and this will not be missed by the general public. The ball was dispensed with at the special request of the president-elect, who asked the committee in charge of the ceremonies to make the entire celebration as simple as possible and at the same time as impressive and dignified as the inauguration of a president of the great republic demands.

Rush of Visitors Has Begun.
The rush of visitors into the capitol began in earnest today. The most of those already on hand are the experienced ones, who desire to get comfortably settled before the high tide is reached. They know what it is to arrive in Washington in the midst of confusion the day before inauguration, when bands are playing in the railroad station and in the hotel lobbies, when it is next to impossible to get a cab and when all the street cars become "stand-as-you-ride" cars. The inexperienced are waiting until later, when they will pay for their experience as all strangers in a crowded city do on the occasion of their first visit.

It is going to be a splendid inauguration, providing the weather clerk does his duty. History shows that the majority of inauguration days have been abominable, but everybody is hoping that Mr. Wilson may have luck.

But no misfortune in weather can chill the ardor of the Democratic hosts, any more than a blizzard or rainstorm will be able to mar the most important feature of the inauguration, the illumination of the city. The illumination of the capital by means of millions of electric lamps promises to be a show in itself. Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the treasury will resemble a fairland. At 100-foot intervals the avenue has been arched with festoons of lights. From each festoon there are three pendant colored lights, which give the broad thoroughfare the appearance of being roofed with brilliant, glowing bulbs. The court of honor opposite Lafayette park and the Union station plaza are also the centers of brilliant schemes of illumination. At night a big searchlight is to play on the capitol, making it visible for miles around. There also will be lighting effects on the Washington monument and on all the prominent public buildings.

Iron Cables Along Line of March.
Mayor Sylvester, the superintendent of police, issued his final instructions today. Among other things, he directs that the entire route of the parade be roped off with iron cables and cleared of all vehicles before 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Beginning Monday morning every available officer and private of the regular police force will be on duty and more than 500 special policemen have been employed.

A considerable number of detectives have been brought here from outside cities to assist the local force in protecting the public from the army of pickpockets and other crooks who always flock here for the great quadrennial harvest. As a further means of protection a unique campaign of publicity has been inaugurated by Mayor Sylvester. In the railroad stations, the lobbies of all the big hotels and in many other public places throughout the city large placards bearing miniature photographs of about 500 well known thieves, principally pickpockets, have been hung conspicuously on the walls so that all may familiarize themselves with the faces of the crooks and be in a position to cause their arrest on sight.

The street fakirs are in evidence as usual. They are here in force from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and from points as far distant as Chicago. Hundreds of them may be seen wandering up and down Pennsylvania avenue with souvenirs to sell. Their wares consist principally of badges and pennants bearing the portraits of the incoming president and vice-president. Evidently the manufacturers of such goods were at a loss to find a distinct emblem for the occasion, such as the "Teddy Bears" and "Billy Possums" that flooded the market at the Roosevelt and Taft inaugurations.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

President Rammelkamp recently received a check for $100 from Mrs. Helen M. Dwight of New York city for the purchase of shrubbery for the campus. Mrs. Dwight is a daughter of William Kirby, a member of the Yale band. This gift will be of great assistance in the work of the campus improvement committee. It will be remembered that a large number of shrubs were sent out last fall and the committee is planning to place an order, within a very short time, for the spring planting. If any friends of the college wish to donate shrubs for this work they are requested to communicate with Mrs. T. J. Pitner, chairman of the campus improvement committee.

Professor and Mrs. Ames returned on Wednesday from their sojourn in the south. Professor Ames will begin his class work on Monday.

Professor Isabel S. Smith, of the department of biology, was prevented from meeting her classes on Thursday and Friday by illness. She will probably meet her classes as usual on Monday.

President Rammelkamp and Dr. G. E. Black, of the board of trustees attended the alumni banquet in Chicago on Friday evening. Dr. Black delivered the chief address of the evening on the history of the medical school of the college.

E. Bentley Hamilton, '02, formerly of Chicago has entered into partnership with George W. Burton of Peoria to establish the law firm of Burton & Hamilton.

"PEACE AND WAR" THEME

AT CENT. CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
One of the subjects that has a right to the consideration of every thoughtful person is that of the disarmament of the nations. Certainly the cost of maintaining armies and navies on a war footing has become the greatest national burden of modern times. All Europe is an armed camp. The same spirit has moved the United States to follow in the footsteps of her European neighbors. Is this wise and right? What about Mexico? Have we any right of interference? What would be our outlook without a large military and naval budget?

At the monthly "popular service" at the Central Christian church Sunday night Mr. Darsie will discuss the subject of "Peace or War" from an economic and Christian standpoint. Whatever else you may do, at least you should be thinking about such questions as these.

NOTICE

To Farmers and Stock Raisers

We are now manufacturing under State License, the best Brand of hog food on market known as "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD". It is far superior to any Brand of Hog food on the market to day. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906, Serial No. 47,673. Guaranteed analysis as follows:

Crude Fat	10.00 to 14 per cent
Crude Protein	52.50 to 60 per cent
Crude Fibre	1.00 to 3 per cent
Phosphate	10.00 to 12 per cent

What Is "Sure Fatten Hog Food"

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuffs, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE recommended by all leading experiment stations.

It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sacks, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above.

It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, a d more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE GUILD HELD MEETING

Reports Made Show Progress—Officers Chosen For Ensuing Year.

The Woman's College guild held a meeting Saturday afternoon at the college, at which officers were elected for the ensuing year and a report was heard by Mrs. E. C. Lambert of the work done by the guild of Illinois Wesleyan university at Bloomington. Mrs. Edgar Martin gave a piano solo and Mrs. Julian Hall sang two solo selections. A reading was given by Miss Janette Powell entitled "Petit Larceny." Some time was given to the discussion of plans for the coming year.

Mrs. Lambert spoke very highly of the work of the guild at Wesleyan which she visited a few weeks ago as a delegate from the local guild. A useful and interesting feature of the work in Bloomington is the maintenance in the public schools of a teacher of rhythmic gymnastics. The literary part of the meeting was followed by a social hour.

The officers re-elected were: President—Mrs. E. C. Carpenter. Vice-president—Mrs. F. J. Rowe. Second vice-president—Miss Weaver.

Secretary—Miss Janette Powell. Treasurer—Mrs. Carrie Phillips. Assistant treasurer—Miss Mary Price.

The next meeting of the guild will be Saturday, April 1.

AFTER FIVE YEARS

Winthrop Child Was Restored to Health by Vinol.

"Five years ago our little girl had a severe attack of diphtheria which left her subject to bronchitis and stomach trouble. She has been almost constantly under medical treatment. I have also tried two or three remedies containing cod liver oil but found her stomach rebelled against the oil. Reading your description of Vinol I decided to try it and did so with most astonishing results. I cannot begin to tell you how she has improved because you do not know what a little sufferer she was for five years. She has gained ten pounds since she commenced to take Vinol, and the story of what Vinol has done for her is only half told in this letter." Mrs. Adelaide Mulloy, Winthrop, Mass.

Vinol contains all the healing curative properties of cod liver oil, without the oil and tonic iron added. That is why it helped this little girl after other remedies had failed. We ask mothers of weak, sickly children to try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to help them. Lee P. Allcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

P. S. Our Saxo Salve is truly wonderful for Eczema. We guarantee it.

BROOKLYN

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
The people of Brooklyn church are very grateful for several favors which have recently come to them. The city, by the influence of C. R. Knollenberg, has replaced the miserable old street light with a fine arc lamp. The corner in front of the church has long been the darkest spot on the south side, and yet it is the most used of all. Church goers have constantly complained of the awful lack of light, and now they are satisfied.

Messrs Brady Bros., have recently donated and connected up a splendid gas range in the church kitchen. The ladies are especially delighted with this new improvement, and feel very appreciative of the donors. Friends have just completed equipping the parsonage kitchen with a fine double siphon brass pump, so arranged that the house has its own water pressure. The pastor's family are greatly enjoying this new improvement. It was made possible by special gifts and the kindness of G. E. Helzer, the plumber.

The old church clock has flaked and now Rev. Mr. Alkins is searching for some other generous friend to hang a new one in the auditorium so the people can call time on his sermons.

MARGUERITE SET THEM

ALL A-HAVING
The delights of "The Sipping Maid" are to be heard in this city. Its haunting melodies, romance and joyousness, and above all, the witchery of diminutive Marguerite Wright in the saucy little role, will cast their charm of vera-lovers at the Grand Wednesday March 6.

The appearance of "The Sipping Maid" after a remarkable trip which carried it twice to the Pacific Coast in a single season, is good indication that appreciation of the better things in light opera music is not confined to any one section or locality of theatre-goers. It is told that "The Spring Maid" has been steadily running in all the principal cities of Europe for nearly four years, and it seems likely to equal that record in America. Usually staid and sober cities seem to have forgotten their restraint in passing judgement on this work and its piquant star. They have showered praise upon Werba and Luescher's entire organization with fine discrimination.

Remarkable Catarrh Cure

Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gathering in Eyes, Noes, Throat and Lungs.

By a long series of elaborate experiments at the Swift Laboratory it is definitely known that catarrh can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antitoxin remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Sure Specific, or as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectively cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation in less than an hour.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely catarrh often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 per bottle. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils and all scrofulous conditions. For special advice on any blood disease write in confidence to The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. at your druggists.

ENTRIES MADE FOR TOURNAMENT

ILLINOIS CONTRIBUTES LARGEST LIST FROM AWAY.

Basketball Enthusiasts Figure on Dope for Coming Meet at Decatur—McKendree Would Enter a Team.

Decatur, Feb. 28.—The official list of entries from the eleven schools which filed their lists of players when the closing day arrived last week, were announced here Wednesday, and show that 13 players will be eligible to compete in the tournament.

Millikin, being at home, was able to enter the largest number, 18 of the local men being possible participants in the play. Illinois college of Jacksonville entered the largest visiting squad, 15 in all, and Lombard holds the record for the small numbers, sending in only seven names.

Are you a believer in signs? Then lamp the figures on the William & Vashit squad. The Alcedons will have 13 players if they bring all of them along. Local prognosticators are hoping that W. & V. discovers their error in time to correct it, as Millikin is counting on Clark, McLaughlin & Co. to put Wesleyan out of business in the opening round.

List of Entries.

The list of entries which were filed last with Coach H. H. Russell of the State Normal is as follows:

Bradley—Shaw, Hill, Otto, Gray, Herron, May, Stephenson and Collins, 8.

I. S. N. U.—Benjamin, Kasbeer, J. Courtwright, Westhoff, Briggs, Stout, Richards, Wheeler, Freed, Shotwell, Moore, Petty, Graham, Smith, 14.

Millikin—Stables, L. Kik, Brown, Walraven, Montgomery, Miller, Delaney, White, Holcomb, Alberts, Tenison, Reid, Evans, Hershey, Hart, Osgood, Lichtenberger, 18.

William & Vashit—G. Clark, S. Clark, Thompson, R. McLaughlin, F. McLaughlin, Durston, Baldwin, James, Moffet, Kidoo, McKee, Morehead, 12.

Shurtleff—Moore, Coulter, Hoppe, B. Wheeler, E. Wheeler, Sloman, Kaufold, Main, Terry, Mabee, Snodgrass, 11.

Eastern Illinois State Normal School—Corrine, Hampton, Butler, Hill, Helm, Rodgers, McIntyre, Montgomery, Ryder, Cook, Randolph, Gordon, 12.

Hedding—Coleman, R. Case, Fisk Cannon, Nelson, Young, Ehrenhart, Braucht, H. Case, Bridgeford, 10.

Wesleyan—Hinshaw, Young, Woolrab, Elliott, Calhoun, Ewins, Rust, Hart, Hufford, Redmon, Green, Rhea, 12.

Lombard—Bragdon (captain), Wright, Chain, Numaek, Rousequist, Fiedisch, Rush, 7.

Illinois College—Jacard (captain), Johnson, Stewart, Furr, Tandy, Alchinson, Trul, Capps, Widenham, McLaughlin, Hunziker, Cline, Shaffer, Stotlar, Gary, 15.

Lincoln College—Bunn, Taylor, McMurray, Kirby, Gale, Williamson, Davis, Nutter, Sheer, Kinsall, 10.

C. S. Gentry, athletic coach of McKendree college, a Methodist institution in Lebanon, Ill., has written Coach J. N. Ashmore of Millikin, requesting the right to enter the intercollegiate basketball tournament to be held in the local university gym. next week.

Illinois Without Opponent.

The withdrawal of Eureka's five leaves a vacancy which would probably have gone unfilled, and it had been decided to allow Illinois college a bye so that the schedule would not be disturbed.

Gentry is a newcomer at McKendree and is anxious to have his school join the I. I. A. A. While it may be necessary to obtain a vote of the conference as a whole, Coach Ashmore had decided to take the matter up with other members of the tournament committee, and the Lebanon school may be admitted. McKendree college has 342 students, according to the latest statistics.

Good Demand For Tickets.

Word has been received here that the trophy shields to be awarded to the champions and runners-up, have been shipped from Bradley Polytechnic at Peoria. When they arrive they will be placed on exhibition in the windows of Haines & Essick. They are of the same design as those awarded last year at Bloomington.

The demand for season tickets is so strong that it may be necessary to curtail their sale so that enough seats will be left to accommodate the crowds which buy single admission tickets. The sale has progressed so rapidly this week that there is little doubt but what the S. R. O. sign will be hung out for most of the programs. Should Millikin continue through to the finals, all attendance records will be broken, as the local gymnasium accommodates a larger crowd than the Bloomington Y. M. C. A.

Much of the work on the special seats, and the sidewalk will be completed by Friday night, when the Bradley Polytechnic five plays in Decatur. The sidewalk from the gymnasium to Oakland avenue will afford a dry route for the spectators to and from the gymnasium and a good crossing of Oakland avenue will be provided.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began to use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Alcott, druggist.

WILL SOON BE PRIVATE CITIZEN ONCE MORE

Plans For Present National Office Holders are Outlined For Days Succeeding March 4th.

Washington, March 1.—President Taft and members of his cabinet are packing up in anticipation of the exodus next week. The departure of the president and his official advisers and their families will leave many gaps in Washington society. Many of the present cabinet officers have had a residence in the capital for ten years in various capacities, while the secretary of agriculture has held his post for fifteen years consecutively. The time for their retirement is at hand, however, and the most of them will probably leave Washington for good.

President Taft's plans for the immediate future have been completed. Immediately after the inauguration of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Taft, with Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen, and several friends will leave Washington for Augusta, Ga., to become the guests of that city until March 27, staying at a hotel there. When his vacation in the south is concluded Mr. Taft will go to New Haven to take up his duties as a law professor. He will reside permanently in New Haven, but will spend his summers at Murray Bay, Canada.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox came to Washington twelve years ago, when the former entered the cabinet of the late President McKinley. During their long residence here they have become thoroughly identified with Washington society. With the change of administration, however, they intend to give up their residence here. They have planned a trip to Florida, to begin the day after inauguration. They will be at Palm Beach and other resorts until the first of May, which month they expect to spend in Washington. They will then go to their summer estate at Valley Forge for the summer and in the fall they will return to Pittsburgh, where Mr. Knox will re-enter the legal profession.

Franklin MacVeagh, secretary of the treasury, is the only member of the cabinet who intends to retain his residence in Washington. Before he entered the cabinet Mr. MacVeagh was engaged in the wholesale grocery business in Chicago. When he took up his official duties, however, he practically severed his business connections and he does not contemplate taking up an active career again. He has a handsome home in Washington and expects to divide his time between this city and his old home in Chicago.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Stimson, the very latest addition to the present cabinet, will return to New York, where Mr. Stimson will resume the practice of law.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham will leave Washington immediately after the inauguration and one week later they will depart from San Francisco for a trip around the world. Their travels will occupy six months and possibly more. Upon their return home they will resume their residence in New York. Mr. Wickersham expects to re-enter of law firm of Strong & Cadwallader, of which he was the senior member at the time he entered the cabinet.

Postmaster General Hitchcock's plans for the future are not definitely settled. He has been a resident of Washington for many years, but it is understood that he will leave the city when he retires from office. He will take a long vacation in Europe and upon his return he will probably reside in New York. It is understood that he has several good business offers in that city.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer, who have been active leaders of Washington society, will be greatly missed. Immediately after inauguration Mr. Meyer and his family will go to Florida for a month. He will give up his residence here the latter part of April, when his lease on the magnificent house he occupies in Scott Circle will expire, and will remove to his summer home at Hamilton, Mass. Eventually Mr. Meyer will resume the active management of the importing firm of which he was head until 1909, when he entered national public life.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Fisher, who joined the cabinet circle about eighteen months ago, will return to Chicago, where Mr. Fisher will re-enter the law firm of Matz, Fisher & Boyd.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, the ranking member of the cabinet in point of service, expects to return to his old home in Tama county, Iowa, and re-engage in farming.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Nagel propose to return to St. Louis, where they made their home prior to Mr. Nagel's appointment in 1909. Mr. Nagel will resume the practice of law.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Frank Chance has begun to waken up little old New York. He has tried himself out and announces that he feels fit to go in and play the bag from the start. This means that Chance is to be given a chance to prove that he is a real second sacker, something that he has long been anxious to do. Chance has the makings of a great team in the Highlanders and the probabilities are that he will land in first division. Anybody who knows the Peerless Leader is aware that he will be content with no other place in the final line up.

Paul Melan is to go to the coast this season and will play with the Oakland team. Roy Moran will also be a coast leaguer, being in the line up of the Sacramento team. Griffith has a string on Roy and may yet be able to use him in Washington. But at present the Senators are so well provided with outfielders that there would be no place for Moran except on the bench. He is too young to be wasting time that way and will no doubt welcome the chance to be in the game all the time and thus acquire more experience.

We stand corrected in regard to the report that "Mike" Drissel was placed on the blacklist for not reporting to the Buffalo club in '06. He played with the St. Louis Browns for a few years after leaving here which in itself indicates the blacklist never touched him, or if it did, was raised. The article in yesterday's Journal reminded several of the old timers of the days of the Blues and many expressions of regard for Mike were heard.

Mr. W. Ki Barr, star third baseman of the old Alerts, was in town yesterday visiting his brother and sister, and looking as youthful as of yore.

The players of the Washington team are to have a treat this week. They will report tomorrow, just in time to see Wilson inaugurated and will live at the expense of the club. When the cost of entertainment in Washington is taken into consideration this is a treat indeed. $50 a day is not an uncommon price to pay for hotel accommodations at inauguration time. Grif will take the team to Charlottesville, Va., Wednesday and start conditioning for the pennant race. He expects to win out this year. So does every one of the other managers except Stoval.

John Evers is so well pleased with conditions at Tampa that he has ordered Murphy to make the camp the permanent training place of the club outfit as long as the Trojan is in command, which some jealous scribes intimate will be about a half year or until Murphy gets on one of his famous grouches and fires the little firebrand.

Rufus Gilbert, who is in camp with the Cubs is well known in Jacksonville as coach of the Bradley football team. He used to make the trip here with his bunch and give exhibitions of his kicking abilities, not at the officials, but with the ball between halves. He was some kicker, believe us, and quite a nice little gentleman besides. His record as a pitcher in the minors was first class, and as he is an intelligent fellow, ambitious, anxious to learn and should make good in the big show.

It is understood that Bush will umpire out on the coast this year. McGreevy and Guthrie, two old timers in the Three Eye and Central circles, will be in the big leagues. Mr. Guthrie was recently married and spent his honeymoon at the Hotel Marquette in St. Louis.

Mr. C. Webb Murphy pulled off another bone head play. When he closed with the Tampa business men for training quarters it was with the understanding that all proceeds of the games should go to the business men's league, they in return to bear the Cubs hotel expenses for the month's stay. The bill will come to about $3,500. The receipts for the first game at Tampa with a semi-pro club from Havana, were over three thousand dollars and there is no telling how much will be taken in before the month is out.

The White Sox are experiencing fine weather in California and are bound to return in winning form. The best news so far from the camp is that Jim Scott has regained form and is as good as he ever was in his life. This will be a great help to the Sox is true. For the last two years Walsh has practically carried the team along. Berger, the new short stop, is said to be a sensation and will get the regular job unless Weaver outbats him. Buck has taken to left handed hitting and is showing improvement.

WOMEN THAT MEN ADMIRE

It is true men admire a pretty face and a good figure, but sooner or later they learn that it is the healthy, happy women that is most of all to be admired. Women who are troubled with nervousness, backache, the blues or other symptoms incident to female ills that drag a woman down to despair, should not forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness to more women in America than any other remedy and should at least give it a trial.

WILL REMAIN CITY ATTORNEY.

Frank L. Hatch, of Springfield, who resigned as corporation counsel following charges of extravagance in legal department made by Mayor Schnepf several weeks ago, has decided at the behest of the commissioners to remain in the service of the city. His resignation was sent to the commission February 17.

When it was considered at a conference, the council declined to accept it and Mr. Hatch consented to withdraw the resignation.

Only One Genuine "Keeley Cure"

There are many imitations and substitutes for the famous "Keeley Cure." Many of these claim to be "just the same" as the Keeley treatment.

All such claims are absolutely false. The genuine Keeley remedies can be had only in the Keeley Institute and its branches, of which there are one or more in almost every state.

We have imitators, but no rivals. No other method or treatment produces these perfect and lasting results.

The Keeley remedies can only be obtained at Keeley Institutes; there is only one of these in the State of Illinois and that is at Dwight.

The Liquor Habit

Is a Nerve Disease and Can Be Cured

Don't ABUSE or UPBraid the man who drinks to excess! His own conscience does that daily, hourly. He is a SICK MAN. He has the alcoholic nerve cell disease. The time when he could help HIMSELF is long past. But YOU can HELP him! WE CAN CURE HIM!

What Is the Liquor Disease?

It is a condition where the nerve cells have become trained to need alcohol. And unless they are fed with alcohol they rebel and refuse to control the muscles and brain cells.

The "craving" for drink is not the disease. It is simply the symptom of the disease, just as a cough is a symptom and not, in itself, a disease.

When the disease is cured the craving and appetite for drink disappear, just as a cough disappears when the cause of the cough is removed.

The Keeley Remedies Cure

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley discovered first the real nature of the liquor disease, and next a remedy that would cure it.

The Keeley remedies are simply nerve tonics that remove the artificial alcohol appetite of the nerve cells and restore them to their healthy, normal condition.

When this is done the man has no longer any need or desire for drink.

In the last 32 years 400,000 men have been cured of the liquor disease by the Keeley method.

The effect of the Keeley remedies is to absolutely destroy the craving and appetite for drink. The man who takes the treatment is no longer called on to fight an appetite. Because the desire and necessity for alcohol are completely gone.

We also cure Opium, Morphine and other drug addictions. The drug is withdrawn gradually and there is no shock, collapse, prostration or sickness. Full particulars in plain, sealed envelope on request.

We manufacture and sell Home Remedies which cure the Tobacco Habit and many forms of nervous troubles.

We have a Chicago office, Suite 906 Rector Building, 79 W. Monroe Street, where arrangements may be made.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

MOVEMENT OF STOCK MARKET WAS NARROW

COPPER GROUP ONLY STOCKS TO SHOW STRENGTH.
Government Suit Against Corn Products and Recommendation of Pujio Committee Bring Some Early Selling—Bank Statement Decidedly Unfavorable.

(By Associated Press)
New York, March 1.—Except for the strength of the copper group in which gains ran to over two points, the movement of stocks today was insignificant. There was some selling early in the session by room leaders account of the government's suit against corn products, news of which reached the street some time in advance of the actual filing of the suit and the recommendations of the Pujio money "trust" committee.

Corn products stocks held fairly steady. The preferred which broke over four points yesterday declined 1 1/2 today but later rallied to a point over the previous close. The movement in the common was fractional. The report of the Pujio committee had not been digested thoroughly enough for the formation of the conclusions upon which to base speculative action. While some recommendations of the committee were regarded as of a character to give Wall street deep concern should congress consider seriously the enactment of such legislation, there was a disposition to dismiss this and all other political considerations for the present until the new administration is at work.

The bank statement was decidedly unfavorable, revealing a cash loss in the actual table of $8,661,000, an amount considerably in excess of estimates. The surplus reserve was all but wiped out, being set down to $2,650,000. This condition probably is a temporary one, however.

Weekly Financial Review.
New York, March 1.—The fall of stocks this week to a new low level carried them to a point of resistance which left speculative sentiment still undecided as to the significance of the halt. The accumulation of shorts created a demand. Reports indicated some investment demand. In this connection, the fall in a number of dividend paying railroad stocks to a six per cent income basis, or to a parity with the price basis at which Southern Pacific is underwritten, seemed to result in lessening pressure of liquidation. This symptom points to the Southern Pacific syndicate undertaking as one source of the market's burdens.

The killing of Madero, the withholding of a decision in the Minnesota rate case, the objection to the Union Pacific dissolution plan by the California Railroad commission, the obstruction to the New York subway contracts and the appeal to eastern railroad trahmen to organize for a coming struggle for a wage increase—all these incidents combined to a parity with the price basis at which Southern Pacific is underwritten, seemed to result in lessening pressure of liquidation.

verged on the weak market at the opening of the week and seemed to exhaust the present factors of depression. News of European politics while of no great direct effect upon New York stocks, was a powerful underlying influence by reason of its vital bearing upon the whole financial problem.

New York was called upon for only small additional gold shipments to Argentina. The relief was timely, in view of heavy requisitions by interior banks. Berlin made high bids, however, for money in New York. Bank reserves, as shown by the returns to the controller now being compiled, are unusually low for the season and, it is agreed, call for cautious procedure.

The inauguration of the new president brings a train of events which have been a potent influence by anticipation and conjecture upon the stock market. Its near approach undoubtedly accounts for much of the covering of speculative contracts and the subsequent pause.

MEDICAL COUNCIL SUED BY SCHOOL

JENNER COLLEGE ASKS $500,000
DAMAGES

Institution Charges Physicians and American Association With Conspiracy to Ruin Small Rival Says
Attorney.

The American Medical Association is being sued for $500,000 by Jenner College who charges the Physicians and American Association with conspiracy. Dr. Carl E. Black of this city is one of the trustees of the Illinois State Medical Society and named as one of the defendants. Dr. Black stated last night that he did not think that there would be much to the suit and that it would not help reputation of school any.

The Chicago Tribune of Saturday in speaking of the suit says:

Suit for $500,000 was started yesterday against the American Medical association and eleven physicians, who as the "council of medical educators," have been making war on small medical schools.

The suit was filed by Charles J. O'Connor, attorney for Jenner Medical college. He charges the physicians with conspiracy to wreck the institution. The following physicians are made defendants: Arthur D. Bevan, N. P. Caldwell, M. L. Harris, George H. Simmons, Alexander R. Craig, William Allen Pusey, all of Chicago; Carl E. Black of Jacksonville, Ill.; Victor C. Vaughn of Ann Arbor, Mich.; George Dock of St. Louis; W. D. Haggard of Nashville, Tenn.; and Joseph W. Holland of Philadelphia.

Defends Jenner College

"Formerly there was a night class at Jenner," said O'Connor. "It was attended by those who earned their living during the day. The association has forced the school to hold a class in the afternoon, and this has cut off a great many students who could not attend in daytime."

"The Jenner institution complies with the law in every way. The state board of health has examined it time and again, and found it in all ways up to the standard required."

"Last year Jenner college had the lowest percentage of failures, only one student failing to pass, out of a class of fifteen."

Attacks Big Schools.

"They don't ask the board of health to make the examinations more rigid or to make them cover the ground more thoroughly. They know that our graduates would pass as easily as the big schools having academies back of them. So they insist that the medical student should have an academy education."

"I had heard about the suit," said Dr. Bevan, "but I can say the American Medical association welcomes it. There is a splendid era of reform sweeping the entire country in all things, and the association is trying to put the teaching of medicine on the same high plane as it occupies in Germany and England.

"The Jenner Medical school, I should say, is in the lowest class, C, and should be reorganized."

TWENTY FIVE YEARS IN BUSINESS HERE

GAY'S RELIABLE HARDWARE
STORE ROUNDS OUT QUARTER CENTURY.

Established in 1888 the Store Is Now
One of the Best Known in Central Illinois—Business Has Increased
With Each Passing Year.

It was just 25 years ago yesterday, March 1st, (1888) that George S. Gay and the late George Hayden opened a hardware store in the building now occupied by George S. Gay. The firm name at first was the George Hayden Hardware Co., but in a short time the name was changed to Hayden & Gay and so continued for twelve years when Mr. Hayden's health failed and January 1, 1901 he sold his interest to Mr. Gay. During the twelve years succeeding that change Mr. Gay has been the sole proprietor. The firm commenced business in a small way when compared with the business, stock and quarters of George S. Gay's store. In the beginning Mr. Hayden, united his stock of guns and ammunition which he had carried in the second story of the building now occupied by Miller brothers, when George and Alfred Hayden were in the grocery business—with the stock of hardware which Mr. Gay supplied. The fact that Mr. Hayden had for 20 years been in the dry goods and grocery business, the firm of Russell & Hayden being well and favorably known far and wide, made the new firm prominent. Coupled with this the life time experience of George S. Gay in the hardware business gave the new firm an excellent trade right from the very start and through all the years since the business has been growing. Hundreds of customers have been added to the regular clientele of the store each year and the treatment accorded them has been such that they remain as permanent customers and today Geo. S. Gay's Reliable Hardware is classed with Jacksonville's largest business houses.

Through the years "Gay's Reliable Hardware" has been the slogan of the store and no few words could better express the foundation on which the large business of this store has been built. The people of Jacksonville, the farmers of Morgan and surrounding counties have come to associate the words "reliable" with everything connected with the Gay hardware store and they know that in dealing there they can absolutely rely upon proper and honest treatment being accorded them.

Courtesy to customers of a never failing kind, honest values, and honest prices are all included in that word "reliable"—and these three things have done much for the upbuilding of the store.

The Gay store has the reputation of doing the largest wire fence business of any hardware store in the state of Illinois.

Car load after car load and one might truthfully say train load after train load of American wire fence have been received by Mr. Gay and distributed largely to the farmers of Morgan county.

During a period of 25 years there are always many business changes and in all lines. If one considers the business houses there are in Jacksonville today and then counts up how many of these same firms were in business 25 years ago, he will be greatly impressed with the changes that a few years make. Since the Gay hardware store was founded there have been eight hardware stores established, none of which are now here. Familiar names in this line of business twenty and twenty-five years ago were Wadsworth & Matheson, Buell & Beatley, John Lindsay, Carter & Kuechler, Hayden & Gay and B. W. Smith.

Twenty-five years of efficient service; twenty-five years of honest and reliable dealing; twenty-five years of growth and progress—it's a great and good record for Gay's Reliable Hardware.

The display window at the A. R. Taylor grocery on West State street will present quite a novel appearance Monday when girls from the domestic science department of the Woman's college will conduct a bakery there on a small scale, and sell cookies for the benefit of the college.

The railway and light company will install a new gas stove and Cain & Sons will furnish "Triumph" flour, which will be made into tempting cookies by twelve girls from the college. The cookies will be offered for sale as soon as they are taken from the oven and the proceeds of the sale will be used for the benefit of the college endowment fund.
